Education Works - Autumn End of Term Report 2015

Jo Emmerson - Education Works Director, ELBA
EDUCATION WORKS AUTUMN 2015

In the last twelve months, the team have really focussed on strengthening our BAGS, Career Capital and Mentoring Works offers for young people and our stakeholders. There is no doubt that we deliver activities to a vast number of beneficiaries, with over 13,000 in the last academic year, with an additional 5,178 from September, we really benefit from the dedication and enthusiasm of our corporate volunteers, with 1,784 supporting the delivery of our work...

Business Action Groups for Schools

This Autumn we've seen Expedia train the Leaders of tomorrow, Students prepare for work during The Royal Docks Community School's enrichment day and an array of workshops supporting development for education professionals.

Career Capital

Our higher education programme is growing and offering more workshops to students than ever before. We received feedback from some of our participants and an excellent case study from our mentoring programme.

Mentoring Works

We've got off to a great academic year with our Sixth Form Recognition event for 2014-15 and the Launch of our Year 10 programme for 2015-16. Also, an insight into one of our sessions hosted by Linklaters on Interview Skills.
